

ChildD Suggested Coronavirus Helps:

ChildD Idea One:

1. Use Zoom, Hangouts or Facetime with Virtual handouts so your child stays social.
2. Heals: isolation, being alone, feeling left out
3. Gains: builds social skills, communication skills, and friendships
4. Mom-Dad network, every week a different parent monitors the group
5. Group friends of 5-6 (for those 12+); 2-3 friends (for those under 12)
6. Ideas
 - a. Puzzle groups
 - b. Play groups
 - c. Friendship groups
 - d. Bible Study groups
 - e. Clubs in Coronavirus
 - f. Cooking Club
 - g. Craft Club
 - h. Art classes as a family Rainbowartmpk.com (online courses at 14.00 per lesson for 12)

ChildD Idea Two:

Gather Extended family once a week: To allay feelings of worry and concern for elder family members.

1. Use Zoom, Hangouts or Facetime with Virtual handouts so your children stays social with family and sees older members are fine.
2. Heals: worry or anxiety about loved ones
3. Gains: builds social skills, communication skills, and friendships
4. Mom-Dad: no need for monitor which allows for private support
5. Zoom allows everyone to gather at once...
6. Ideas
 - a. How has the week gone?
 - b. What was one good thing the happened?
 - c. Prayer request and prayer times
 - d. A talent show, a
 - e. sharing item, a drawing contact, sharing a recipe with each other.

ChildD Idea Three:

To make memories of time together with one on one dates alternating with mom and dad.

1. Date your child. Listen, more than talk. Allow them to have a time with you without lecture, or teaching, but just fun.
2. Heals: Builds communication and sharing skills, not to correct but bless, with listening to your child with uninterrupted time.
3. Gains: builds social skills, communication skills, and trust in that NO critical moments.
4. Ideas:
 1. Games
 2. Walks
 3. Park
 4. Dessert out

ChildD Idea Four:

Outreaching to the community with leadership

1. Appropriate MOVIE/dates with families... Everyone shares it and watches it together... online... with time to discuss with each other... and snacks...
2. Heals: isolation, being alone, feeling left out, fun and for families with no movies online, it shares with them.
3. Gains: builds social skills, communication skills, making personal choices, validating choices, interpretation skills, and friendships, leadership, entrepreneur` skills.
4. Mom-Dad network, every week a different parent monitors the group
5. Group friends of 5-6 (for those 12+); 2-3 friends (for those under 12)
6. Ideas
 1. Surprise snack share with friends head earlier in the week...
 2. Group votes which movie they want.
 3. Movie evaluator, and share with neighborhood on a monthly newsletter the kids make.
 4. Build leadership and writing skills having the group evaluate it and share, and one mom places in a newsletter template... or older siblings.

ChildD Idea Five:

Grow a heart full of an “attitude of gratitude” by making gifts for friends as a family weekly project, with a little extra for yourself.

1. Heals: isolation, being alone, feeling left out, fun for family works together, team skills
2. Gains: builds social skills, communication skills, teaches patience, sharing, waiting, working as a team, love of God, and gift giving of the heart...
3. Give only to those in Japan who will not feel obligated to give back, but would receive such in love.